PRAYER IS IMPORTANT

- Please remember Laura Crownover's brother Joe, who has a severe infection & remains in isolation.
- Dorothy Cunningham may be eligible for a transplant. Please keep her and Bill in your prayers as they work through the process.
- Please remember Shannon & Mike as they prepare for Shannon's surgery this week. Also keep Mike in your prayers as he manages his health issues waiting for surgery.
- Loretta Bower is traveling this week for the holiday. Please keep her in your prayers with her health appointments pending.
- Lynn Nothstein's husband Tom continues to wait for an MRI. Please keep him in your prayers. Please remember Tom's Uncle Andy as well. He remains in a Texas hospital not doing well.
- Alora Cottam continues to ask for prayers for her son Rick. Please remember them both.
- Jan Hayes granddaughter Kara, had major surgery this past Monday. She came through well but is in a lot of pain. Please keep her, her husband Carlos and their 2 children in your prayers.
- Jerra Stevens, a friend of Kate Senior, suffering from cancer has only been given a short time here on earth. Please keep this young mother of 3 in your prayers as she prepares to meet her Lord.
- Russell Capshaw asked for prayers for his son Charles. God knows his needs.
- Please continue to keep Vera McGee's husband, Dave McGee's dad Tim in your prayers. He was transferred to the CCC in Lompoc this past Friday.
- Mike Cottam's coworker, Yvette Dorado's brother had a major stroke. Please keep this family in your prayers.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The world is changed by your example, not by your opinion.

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

I have for you an example, that you should do as I have done for you. ~ John 13:15

ENCOURAGING WORDS

Words Have Meanings!

Our words obviously have definitions so it is important to use words with a full understanding of what each word means! One of the problems which have led to religious division is a failure to define words of the New Testament as they were used in the first century. One would never come to the conclusion that sprinkling is baptism if it were understood that the word "baptism" in the first century always meant "to dip, to submerge."

Many years ago we ran into an employee of a client at Albertsons here in Lompoc after church one Sunday. He asked why we were all "dressed up" and I explained that we just left "church." He said the he too was religious, but couldn't recall of what "religion." So he shouted out to his wife in the vegetable section and asked her what religion he was. She replied that he was a Christian, but had no idea beyond that.

If a doctor has no office, has no patients, prescribes no medicine, diagnoses no illness, does no medical exams, and receives no pay, is he a doctor? Whenever he has stopped doing those things which doctors do, he is no longer a doctor.

If a farmer plows no land, buys no seed, plants no crops, feeds no animals, never harvests anything, is he a farmer? Whenever he has stopped doing those things which farmers do, he is no longer a farmer.

Now make the spiritual application of this principle. If a Christian stops attending worship, sings no hymns of praise, never bows his head to pray with others, never gives, never reads the Bible, never sits in Bible classes or hears sermons, is he a Christian? Whenever he has stopped doing those things which Christians do, he is no longer a Christian.

Remember the inspired words of Paul: "I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, Who loved me and gave Himself for me."

Gal. 2:20
