THOUGHT FOR TODAY

If you change the way you look at things, the things you look at change.

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

T each me Your way, O LORD, that I may walk in Your truth, Give me an undivided heart, that I may fear your name. ~ Psalm 86:11

ENCOURAGING WORDS

At The Cross

As you stand at the foot of His cross, what great truths come to mind? Sometimes our greatest understanding of truth comes in the midst of great trauma.

At His cross, I learn the truth about myself. There were so many who were impacted by His death and each had his own reason for being there. Would I be among those who walked by and kept going with little interest in what was happening? Would I have stood beside His mother and sought to comfort her, or would I have not been there at all like those disciples who fled from the garden?

At His cross, I learn the sinfulness of mankind. Think of all the evil that filled the hearts of those evil men whose agenda brought about His death. Three times Pilate asked these men, "What evil has He done?" (Luke 23:22). There is no answer to this question, for He never did even one thing wrong. Evil is a reality in our world and it has never been seen more clearly than at the foot of the cross.

At His cross, I learn the truth about my inability to save myself. My own "goodness" could not take away the guilt of only one sin. The only hope I have of heaven is that hanging on that cross was the One whose sinless life could redeem me. There was nothing I could do to remove sin and God sent His son to pay my debt. I feel my sinfulness and helplessness at the cross.

At His cross, I learn about God's providential love which surrounds me now. Now if God did that much for me when I was His enemy, how much more will He do for me now that I am His child? He loved me then and He loves me much more now!

What does the cross mean to you? That answer to that question can be seen by the emotions we have during the meditation as we commune with Him around the His table!
