pause

for just a second.
a moment.
and be grateful.
even if life isn't perfect.
but thankful
for the life you get to live.
for the stories.
for the adventure.
and for those
you are blessed to love.
pause.

Carol's Pantry is open to those in need

Jinny's Closet is open. Come on in.

PRAYER IS IMPORTANT

-Janice Weidman fell and injured her shoulder and arm. Please keep her in your prayers for relief of pain and a swift recovery.

-John Smith, who has come and spoken to us before, had a heart attack recently. Please keep him and his wife Fran in your prayers as he recovers.

-Paul Alhart's, a former member here, wife is on hospice care. Please remember Paul and his family.

-Please continue to keep Charles and Judith in your prayers as Charles is now on hospice care. Please remember Nan, Karen and the extended family also.

-Please continue to remember Laura Crownover's brother Joe. He remains in quarantine for one more week or until he tests negative for the virus. Please keep the entire family in your prayers.

-Mark Hestand requested prayers on our website, that he might find a new job. Please remember Mark.

-Jerry & Sandy Hopkins are returning from their trip arriving tomorrow. Please keep them in your prayers.

-The Bliss family is out of town this weekend. Please keep them in your prayers as they travel back Tuesday.

-We would like to thank everyone for your patience the this COVID19 pandemic. Sunday morning class and evening service will resume soon. Just a reminder that masks are required and that children need to stay with their parents.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Biblical Faith: It is not a leap into the dark; rather it is a step into the light.

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

Though you have not seen Him, you love Him, and though you do not see Him now, BUT believe in Him, you greatly rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory, obtaining as the out-come of your faith the salvation of your life. ~ 1 Peter 1:8-9

ENCOURAGING WORDS

Worshipping In the Presence of God

It is often easy to lose sight of the very nature of worship and the result of this robs us of one of the great blessings God has for us. As yourself this question: "Why do I come to worship each week?" There may be many reasons, but what is the fundamental, underlying reason you come to worship?

If you think first in terms of, "I do it because He commands me to," perhaps you should think more about it. Did not Jesus describe those who "draw near to Me with their mouth, and honor me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me?" We do come to worship because He commands us, but if that is the primary reason, we are robbing ourselves of the true meaning of worship. Think about the following verses:

Psalm 95:2 - "Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving; let us shout joyfully to Him with psalms." It is not a private time of praise David had in mind. It was "us" who came before Him in His presence. The next verse sheds even more reasons as to why we come to worship. "For the Lord is the great God, and the great King above all gods." We should stand in awe that this great God would so graciously allow sinful men to come into His presence.

Psalm 100:1-4 - "Serve the Lord with gladness; come before His presence with singing." Notice how godly men came to worship realizing that this was the place, above all others, where we are "in His presence." We come with gladness and praise before Him. In worship we are truly in His presence. Worship is not just "making a payment" on a heavenly insurance policy. We do not come just to obey Him. Worship comes from hearts which long to praise Him in His presence!
