THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Judging a person does not define who they are. It defines who you are.

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

For in the way you judge, you will be judged; and by your standard of measure, it will be measured to you.

~ Matthew 7:2

ENCOURAGING WORDS

Our Communion with Our Lord

The most meaningful part of a Christian's week is when He communes with His Savior every Lord's Day (Matt. 26:29). The Lord obviously knew what He was doing when He instructed His church to observe the Lord's Supper every first day of the week. As with all of His instructions, partaking of the Supper every Sunday is not a random command, but purposeful, for He knew that humans need a regular reminder of the most important things, and regular motivation to stay devoted to those most important things. Communing every first day of the week ensures that we stay focused as His people.

But, what do we do when we partake and "do the same thing" week after week? We eat of the unleavened bread, as He instructed, in order to honor and remember His "body," which was "given" for us (Luke 22:19). But, what do we do as we partake? We drink of the fruit of the vine, as He instructed, in order to honor and remember His "blood," which was "shed" for us (Luke 22:20). But, what do we do as we partake?

We are warned very specifically of partaking "in an unworthy manner" (1 Cor. 11:27, 29). What does that mean? Does that mean I am not to partake if I don't feel "worthy"? No, that's not the meaning at all. The expression is not an adjective to describe the partaker, but it is an adverb to describe the action—the manner in which I partake is to be worthy.

Jesus told us that, by partaking and while partaking, we are to do this "in remembrance of Me" (Luke 22:19; 1 Cor. 11:24-25). It is not a meaningless or thoughtless time! It is not a "dead time" in our worship! Our hearts are to be remembering what our Savior did for us! As we partake, (1) we are to remember "the Lord's death" (11:24-26), (2) we are to "examine" ourselves (11:28), and (3) we are to "discern the Lord's body" (11:29). The action of eating and drinking is considered "worthy" by the Lord when the worshiper's heart and mind are fully engaged in this most precious time with our Savior.
