Take time and make his acquaintance!

PRAYER IS IMPORTANT

-Vikki McGee had surgery this past Wednesday and came through well. Please keep her in your prayers as she starts radiation in 3 weeks. Dave also reports Vera is doing well in her new surroundings. God is good!
-Barbara Grimm asked for prayers for her sisters sister-in-law Judy Haven. She has a mass in her stomach the doctors are concerned about. She also has many other health concerns. Please keep her and the family in your prayers.
-Martha Kretzinger requested prayers for her son & daughter in law as they travel for the holidays. Please remember them.
-Laura Crownover asked for prayers for her brother Joe. There has been an outbreak of the virus in the facility he resides in. please keep him and the other residents and staff in your prayers.
-Jan Hayes asked for prayers for her grandson and his marriage. Please keep this family in your prayers. Also, Jerry lost a niece in a car accident. Please remember this family as well with this tragic loss.
-Russell Capshaw asked for prayers for his niece Brook and the loss of her Aunt. Please keep the family in your prayers.
-Sharon Donaghe asked that we remember her sister in law Robin in the loss of her husband Richard. They are really struggling. Please keep the family in your prayers.
-Please continue to keep Jerry Kendall & Judy in your prayers as they both continue to deal with health issues.
-Please continue to keep our country in your prayers as we transition to the new elected officials.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The most unknown, unused and unrecognized tool of the human mind, is the recognition that attitude is always a choice.

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

Who then is those who fear the LORD? He will instruct them in the way they should choose. ~ Psalm 25:12

ENCOURAGING WORDS

The Danger of Manmade Traditions

The sharpest rebukes of Jesus during His earthly ministry were directed at the Pharisees. One such condemnation is found in Mark 7. Jesus looked at the Pharisees and called them "Hypocrites." He first quoted from Isaiah as the basis for this charge: "Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written: 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. They worship me in vain; their teachings are merely human rules. (Mark 7:6-7) The efforts of the Pharisees were hypocritical (and in vain) because their "heart" was not right with God and because they substituted their own doctrines in place of the doctrines of God.

Three times in this text Jesus charged the Pharisees with placing dangerous and sinful emphasis on their own "traditions." Their traditions involved the way they washed dishes, their own manipulated care of their parents, and "many such things" that caused them (in their eyes) to "appear beautiful outwardly." (Matt. 23:27) Here's the problem: They had taken these manmade doctrines and elevated them above and substituted them for the doctrine of God!

When an individual (or a church) places greater emphasis on their opinions, their personal beliefs, their handed-down traditions, their "we've always done it this way," they fall prey to the same devil-set trap as the Pharisees. Jesus told the Pharisees that they were "nullifying the word of God by the traditions that you have handed down." (v. 13) Basically, they were putting themselves (and their doctrines) in the place of God.

The Lord will not tolerate anything (or anyone) that challenges His authority, His holiness or His revealed will. We must never add to or take from God's Word (Rev. 22:18-19). We must never go beyond what He says (1 Cor. 4:6), "to do less or more" (Num. 22:18). We must never manipulate His Word to fit our desires (Gal. 1:6-9). We must ever be faithful!
