THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Nothing is so strong as gentleness,
nothing so gentle as real strength.

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

Therefore I, the prisoner of the Lord, implore you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling with which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, showing tolerance for one another in love. ~ Ephesians 4:1-2

ENCOURAGING WORDS

Why Wait?

There seems to be something almost magical about the end of one year and the beginning of a new year. It is so magical that many of us make "New Year's Resolutions"—this is going to be the time that I start something new, or this is going to be the time that I stop that particular habit. And so, we wait. Something that we ought to be doing "today" is put off until that future day when the year changes. Or, with a year like this one, we put our hopes in the major difference that leaving one year and entering another year will supposedly bring.

But, what is the big deal about the first day of January? Why is that "the day" that seems to be the difference-maker? If there is something that is worth doing and will make a significant difference in our lives, why wait for another day beyond TODAY? Or, if there is something that is detrimental to my life and needs to be discontinued to get on a better path, why wait for another day beyond TODAY?

Aren't you glad that God doesn't wait for New Year's Day? One's sins are removed at the point of baptism (Acts 2:38), never to be remembered again. (Heb. 8:12) A child of God's sins are removed continually during his faithful walk and confession of sins (1 John 1:7, 9), never to be remembered again. (Heb. 10:17) God doesn't wait until a "move convenient season" to forgive! He forgives immediately!

"The Lord is not slack" (2 Pet. 3:9)! If God doesn't wait, why do we? So, if there is something that you need to change in your life in order to be right with God, don't wait until New Year's Day. Don't wait until you "get everything worked out." Don't wait until a more convenient season (Acts 24:25). Don't wait!
