THOUGHT FOR TODAY

He who spends time regretting the past, loses the present, and risks the future.

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

Nevertheless, with most of them God was not well pleased, for they were laid low in the wilderness. Now these things happened to them as an example and they were written for our instruction, upon whom the ends of the ages have come.~ 1 Corinthians 14 10:5, 11

ENCOURAGING WORDS

Have a Good Week

As we begin a new week, here are a few things we can do this week – and every week for that matter – to help us be a better person, a more dedicated Christian, and make us less vulnerable to the attractive things of this world.

Stand up straight – there is a tendency to give into culture, to let society rule in our lives. It's easy to just give in to the influences of the day. It takes fortitude and moral courage to stand up straight in the midst of the perverse society in which we live. Paul says, "Finally, be strong in the Lord and in His mighty power." (Eph. 6:10) Standing up for a length of time can make one tired, but we must persevere.

Watch where you're going – It's easy to get distracted and lose your way. You're going along and suddenly you veer off course, almost without noticing it. The flickering lights of the world around us can mesmerize if we're not watching where we're going. The Psalmist says, "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path." – (Ps 119:105)

It helps considerably to have a map to show where we're going. Keep the Bible nearby. It's the guiding force that will take you where you want to go and keep you from straying off course.

Be careful what you let in – Our minds are constantly being bombarded with things that are very appealing. The devil is a true artist when it comes to making sin attractive. We have to learn to reject such stuff and this begins with restricting what we allow to have residency in our minds. Jesus said, "Consider carefully what you hear" – Mark 4:24 – and Solomon said, "For as he thinks in his heart, so is he" – Proverbs 23:7 If we don't let junk sit down for a while in our hearts, it can't do its dirty work – so be careful what you let in.

I hope you have a great week. And oh, by the way, one final thing....Pray and then pray some more!!!
