PRAYER IS IMPORTANT

-Dorothy Cunningham's preparation for the transplant is tomorrow the 26th of July. Please continue to keep her and Bill in your prayers as they travel down south for this.

-Jan Hayes' daughter Shauna saw the doctor this past week. She has Stage 3-4 cancer. She will start Chemo soon followed by radiation. She has some nerve damage as well and will be seeing a nerve specialist this week. Please keep Shauna and the extended family in your prayers as they work through this diagnosis.

-Kate Garcia, David & Kim's daughter is in a high-risk pregnancy. Please keep her & Josh in your prayers for the length of this pregnancy.

-Loretta Bower is home. Prayers were answered in bringing her home safely.

-Cliff Downing left last Sunday for his new adventure in Texas. He had a few mishaps but arrived at his son's Thursday. Please keep him in your prayers for a good church that he can be a part of and where he can be near his family.

-Please remember Judith Scharnagel and her daily struggles and her health issues.

-Please keep all those associated with the fires raging across our state and country for safety and survival.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The capacity to learn is a gift; the ability to learn is a skill; the willingness to learn is a choice!

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

"I love those who love me, and those who seek me find me." ~Prov. 8:17

ENCOURAGING WORDS

Uncontrolled Emotions

How in the world could an innocent man like Jesus end up being convicted, tortured and nailed to a tree? One thing is for certain—rational thinking was not present or practiced among His enemies in those dark hours.

*Then the Jewish leaders took Jesus from Caiaphas to the palace of the Roman governor. By now it was early morning, and to avoid ceremonial uncleanness they did not enter the palace, because they wanted to be able to eat the Passover. John 18:28 – Get the Picture?!

Jesus had been arrested upon a deceptive identification from Judas and hauled off (bound like a vicious criminal) to stand trial before the high priest (Mark 14:53). Jesus spent that night before Annas, Caiaphas and then the Sanhedrin, in a series of unlawful middle-of-the-night trials. In those trials, "the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for false evidence against Jesus so that they could put him to death." (Matt. 26:59). Did you catch that? They were not seeking "true testimony" but "false testimony."

Finally, when Jesus confirmed that He is "the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One...they all condemned Him to be deserving of death" (Mark 14:61-64). After spitting on Him, blindfolding Him, beating Him and mocking Him that night, the revered religious leaders "made their plans how to have Jesus executed. So they bound him, led him away and handed him over to Pilate the governor." For the last several hours, they were not concerned in the least about truth, about law or about decency.

Emotions are powerful! They can lead us to do great things that we normally wouldn't do. They can also lead us to say, do and believe things that are not rational or Biblical. Sometimes one doesn't want to acknowledge that their behavior is sinful, so they take an irrational or unbiblical position. Sometimes we get weary of society force-feeding immorality to us and so we give in (emotionally easier) rather than take a stand. May God help us to not get so caught up in our emotions (like Jesus' enemies) that we lose sight of the purity of His truth!
