

2021
Stronger Than Ever

Memories in Time
1 Cor.15:51-57

Moments of _____ -
(Lk. 17:19-26; Psa. 139:23-24; Lk. 12:27-28)

- There are moments when we are asked to reflect on our _____ -
- That reflection produces an _____ or images in our mind of moments gone by!
- Moments enable us to consider our _____ situation or circumstance in life -

Moments of _____ - (1Tim. 1:12-14; Phil. 3:13-15)

- The important thing about regrets is not _____ on them but _____ from them!
  - Paul did not allow his mind to be _____ by the contemplation of the past!
  - Paul focused on what was yet to be _____.
- Regrets - not a _____ place but a _____ experience!

Moments of _____ - (Eph. 1:7-10; Jn. 8:31-36)

- Redemption = to buy back; free from _____ by ransom; in exchange for something of _____.
- To redeem something is to deliver it on _____ of a ransom.
- Redeemed by the _____ of Jesus we are set free from the power of _____.
- We are thus ransomed or _____ to live our lives on a _____ plane.

We have been redeemed, purchased, bought back, freed from the captivity of sin, by the blood of the _____ Jesus Christ. -

ENCOURAGING WORDS

That To Me Is Amazing!

There are some amazing things that we read about Jesus in the Bible, but the most amazing thing to me is that He never sinned—not even once.

Jesus came to this earth “in the likeness of sinful flesh” (Rom. 8:3), meaning that He took on a flesh and blood body, which is not inherently sinful, but is able to be tempted by the devil. And He was tempted! He was “in all points tempted as we are.” (Heb. 4:15)

- He was “tempted,” which meant that sin must have been tempting for Him.
- He was tempted “in all points,” meaning the devil did not hold anything back.
- He was tempted in all points “as we are,” meaning that Jesus faced the same temptations that you face.

Yet, He did not sin! He did not give in to temptation even once!

Don't you know that must have been incredibly hard? Think about this...the fact that it was tempting indicates how enticing it was to Jesus. But why didn't He give in? What kept Him from sinning?

Many answers could be given, but here's something to think about: Jesus fought back every temptation to sin, knowing that if He sinned just once, then He couldn't save YOU! It was all for YOU! He came to be that lamb led to the slaughter for YOU (Isa. 53:7-8), but His sacrifice would only save YOU if He Himself was “without sin”! That is to me amazing!
