Pause

for just a second.
A moment.
And be grateful.
Even if life isn't perfect.
But thankful for the life you get to live.
For the stories.
For the adventures.
And for those you are blessed to love.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Reading Scripture is like collecting pollen.
Meditation on it is like making honey.

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, for they become mine. I have more insight than all my teachers, for Your testimonies are my meditation. ~ Psalm 119:97-98

PRAYER IS IMPORTANT

-Steven Loney, a former member here, passed away this past week from complications with his MS. Please remember the Loney family in your prayers.
-Kim Senior's condition has vastly improved. This has been corrected & she is doing much better. God is good all the time.
-Robin Murray is hurting with back pain. Please keep her in your prayers.
-Prayers of thanksgiving for Tracy Bower, as she has landed a job in Italy! She is very excited & leaves at the end of the month. God's speed Tracy!
-David House had good news from his appointment with his vascular doctor this past week. Prayers have been answered.
-Alora Cottam tested positive this past week for COVID. Please keep her in your prayers.
-Shawn B Johnson gave an update on Veda. She has finally tested negative! Praise God. Please continue to keep their household in your prayers as they work together, taking care of each other.
-Please keep Will Hubbard in your prayers as he recovers from outpatient surgery this past week. He has been worshipping with us on occasion over the past year.
-Jan Hayes received a good report from Jerry Don & Brenda. She is progressing well. God is good! Also please keep Shawna in your prayers. Her surgery is scheduled this Thursday the 11th.
-Please keep Shawn Brown & his family in your in your prayers. He may be released to a recovery home for about two weeks and then possibly home. The doctors are monitoring him closely. Please continue to lift him up in prayers.
-Please continue to keep Bill & Dorothy Cunningham in your prayers as they continue to deal with health challenges.
-Please continue to keep Carol Quesnel in your prayers as she adjusts to the CCC.
-Vickie Wadlington is still traveling. Please keep her in your prayers for a blessed visit & safe passage.
-Please keep all the students returning to school next week in your prayers. Pray for their safety & all they will learn moving forward.
-Please keep our 1st responders in your prayers as they are in harms way with the fires raging across our country. Also, please keep those affected by loss and dangerous conditions through these events.

ENCOURAGING WORDS

The Absolute Best!

It's often hard to speak in absolutes. It's hard to say without qualification that something is the best, the most, the greatest. But sometimes you can. For instance, the gospel is good news. But it is not just good news. It is the good news. In fact, it is the best news. No justification, no qualification is required. With the good news of the gospel, all bad news is bearable! There are also some absolutes that can be stated without exaggeration about the Lord's Day. Here are just two of many:
Of all the programs in which you might be involved in today, none is more significant than the Lord's worship. There might be a television program of some value on today, but I doubt it. There may be a gathering of business moguls, of entertainment celebrities, or of political powers occurring someplace or some places across the globe. "But you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem. You have come to thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly, to the church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven. You have come to God, the Judge of all, to the spirits of the righteous made perfect." (Heb. 12:22-23) Where else would you rather be?
Of all the petitions that might be offered this day to persons of a mind and capacity to help, none will make more difference than the prayers of the Lord's people. Someone somewhere today will call upon medical personnel to come assist or save a life. Someone somewhere today will visit a member of the Senate or Congress to request a favor or plead a cause. But today, all the "called out" somewhere across the world will "draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and may find grace to help in time of need" (Heb. 4:16). No other petitions offered by any persons to any other power will make more difference than the fervent petitions, confessions, adulation, and intercessions offered by these persons. To whom would you rather speak today?
Today is the first day. The time for first things. You've chosen the best part of today— the best program in which to participate, the best sight to behold, the best petitions to be offered, the best discussion to be had. Give it your best. It deserves your best. You'll not be sorry you did.
