ENCOURAGING WORDS

Worship That Is Acceptable

Religious people these days are clamoring for more exciting and appealing ways to conduct worship services. Our opposition to such does not excuse going to the other side of the spectrum, insisting that our services be appropriately dull and boring. Often, lost in the shuffle, is the fact that we do not determine what is acceptable worship. We merely recognize what God has authorized in His inspired word. Sadly, in an effort to gain larger crowds, many have turned their backs on God's word in preference to human wisdom. While there are scriptural ways to improve and enhance the effectiveness of worship, the "get-them-in-at-all-costs" philosophy is filled with pitfalls that undermine the mission of the church for which Jesus died. (Lk. 19:10) Not all that men do in the name of worship is acceptable in the sight of God. Don't forget the example of Nadab and Abihu who lost their lives because they chose to incorporate unauthorized fire into their worship. (Lev. 10:1-3 cf. Ex. 30:34-38).

In a context dealing specifically with worship, Paul writes, "Let the word of Christ richly dwell within you, with all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God. And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks though Him to God the Father." (Col. 3:16-17) Whatever we do in worship must be backed by Christ's authority.

God knows how He wants to be worshiped. He has given instructions as to how we must worship Him and any changes in worship procedure must fall within the bounds of His inspired word. Otherwise, our worship experience becomes little more than a sounding board for our own selfish preferences. May God help us here as we seek to worship and serve Him alone. (Mt. 4:10).

How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take the speck out of your eye,' when you yourself fail to see the plank in your own eye? First take the plank out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye. ~ Luke 6:42
