THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The past is a place of reference, not a place of residence; the past is a place of learning, not a place of living.

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

"Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus."
~Phil. 3:13:14

-Please keep Debbie T Nelson in your prayers following the loss of her husband Elmer. He passed away in the night this past Wednesday. Please keep the extended family in your prayers as well as Elmer's mother Sarah. Prayers also for Ethel as she traveled to be with Debbie in this difficult time. ENCOURAGING WORDS

Have We Forgotten?

How easy is it for us to forget what we have...and forget how good we have it? Children sometimes do this—thinking that other kids have it better than they do. Husbands and wives sometimes do this—thinking that someone other than their spouse might be able to satisfy them better. Christians sometimes do this—thinking that people in the world have it better than they do.

Therefore, sometimes we go looking for something "fresh" and "new" and "exciting," because what we've had for "so long" is no longer "fulfilling." The reality is that in many cases, we have just convinced ourselves that "new" and "different" is "better," when, in fact, it is not. We are seeing this in the church. What the church has taught for so long, pure New Testament truth, is "no longer fulfilling," and the search is made for something "fresh" and "new" and "exciting." What gets left behind is the realization that everything we do must be done by the authority of Christ!

One major area this is impacting in the church is our worship. We must recognize the difference between the "tradition of men," which is "not according to Christ," and the "tradition" of God, 2 Thess. 2:15; 3:6, which is divinely authorized. In the matter of worship, many today have lost sight of the true audience of worship, God, John 4:23-24, and the authority for acceptable worship, and they have made the worship focused more on pleasing the worshiper!

How easy is it for us to forget what we have...and forget how good we have it? Worshiping the Lord "in spirit and truth" John 4:24, as He has clearly specified in the New Testament, ought to bring such overwhelming joy to our hearts that we would never look for any other way to do it than the way He wants. That's what love for Him will do!
