THOUGHT FOR TODAY

In their own way, problems can be blessings. They can be the prod to get us out of our complacency and into action.

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance. Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything.
~ James 1:2-4

PRAYER IS IMPORTANT

-Sharon Donaghe's dad Robert Summers, had surgery last Sunday on his foot but it wasn't as successful as they'd hoped. He is doing some better & hopes to come home Tuesday or Wednesday but will go on hospice care. Please continue to keep Robert & the extended family in your prayers. Also, keep Danny Donaghe in your prayers following his trip up north for a checkup.

-Welcome to Bob & Billie Jean Chadwick! They placed membership last Sunday & we are excited to start working with them in God's work here in Lompoc!

-Pam Mathos is home but is still dealing with back pain & high blood pressure. Please keep her & the family in your prayers.

-Bob Donald would like to thank everyone for the prayers grams & kind thoughts he has received over the last few weeks while he battles the shingles.

-Prayers for Roy Senior as he has back surgery this Thursday, the 18th. He will be away from us for the next 3 Sundays. Prayers for a swift recovery & resolution of pain.

-Please keep Laura Crownover's sister Ruthie in your prayers. Her surgery was postponed until the first week in February. Once she is healed, she will have another surgery. Please keep Laura, Linda & Ruthie in your prayers as they work together to take care of each other.

-Ann Thompson asked for prayers for Kevin as he deals with hip & knee pain. The cortisone shots haven't worked for him. Prayers for relief of pain.

-Shawn B Johnson asked for prayers for her children & their spiritual health. She prays daily for each of them to know God to His fullest & depend on Him for everything!

ENCOURAGING WORDS

"The Truth" is a teacher!
More than 60 times in the New Testament the definite article "the" (This word "The" is considered as a definite article because it is used to refer to something specific) is found before the word "truth," to emphasize the single, absolute and distinctive nature of Divine truth. The plural form of "truths" is never found in Scripture, which again would seem to be God's way of emphasizing the single, absolute and distinctive nature of Divine truth. Let's examine what we can learn about "the truth" from the usage of that expression in the New Testament.

Through the work and guidance of the Holy Spirit, "all the truth" has been given to us in Scripture (John 16:13). Knowing that we can trust it (for, it is "the truth") and knowing that we are not missing anything God intended for us to have (for, it is ALL the truth"), we must come to Scripture with the utmost respect.

First, consider that there are devastating ways in which man may respond to "the truth." Scripture affirms that "the truth" can be (but should not be) "suppressed," "exchanged for the lie," "rejected," "withheld," "opposed," "turned from" and "lied against" (Jas. 3:14). May God help us to never treat "the truth" or act toward "the truth" in these ways!

Even more so, Scripture makes it very clear that "the truth" can and needs to dwell or abide in us. "The truth" can be and needs to be "heard," "known," "believed" and "obeyed." When we respond properly to "the truth," Scripture reveals the power of the single, absolute and distinctive truth. It "makes us free," "sanctifies," "purifies" and "testifies" of our faithfulness as we comply (3 John 12).

There is much for us to learn from and about "the truth." May we always be reminded that apart from Jesus, who is "the truth" (John 14:6), there is no truth! His truth is not relative or multiple choice! It is absolute and powerful!
