THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Constant kindness can accomplish much. As the sun makes ice melt, kindness causes misunderstanding, mistrust and hostility to evaporate.

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

Do not let kindness and truth leave you; bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart. So you will find favor and good repute in the sight of God and man.

~ Proverbs 3:3-4

ENCOURAGING WORDS

The Importance of Repentance

The point of repentance was brought up in our Sunday morning bible class a few weeks ago, so now would be a good time to explore its importance more thoroughly. A form of the word "repent" is found in both the Old and New Testaments, so "repentance" is certainly a Biblical concept from beginning to end. The basic meaning of the term is to "change one's mind." It is, essentially, a change of mind that leads to a change of life, and the step of "repentance" is included in God's plan of salvation. However, many may have neglected to emphasize this God-given responsibility as much as God would have us to emphasize it.

Repenting is a command of God. John the Baptist's preaching could be summarized with the command that he issued to "Repent" (Matt. 3:2). Jesus came and preached the same sermon to "Repent" (Matt. 4:17; Mark 1:15). Even Christians who have sinned are commanded to "Repent" therefore this is not something optional that we can ignore.

Repenting carries with it great rewards when obeyed. Repentance can lead one into "the kingdom of God" (Mark 1:15), lead to "remission of sins" (Luke 24:47), and can lead to eternal "life." (Acts 11:18)

Repenting carries with it severe consequences when neglected. Choosing to not repent leads one to "perish." (Luke 13:3; 2 Pet. 3:9)

Repenting from sins should be motivated by the presence and consequences of sins in our lives (Acts 8:21-22), "godly sorrow" for those sins (2 Cor. 7:9-10) and by the "goodness" and "longsuffering" of God toward us (Rom. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9).

Here is a concern. Among other things, it is possible that more new converts would remain faithful if they truly understood the nature of sin and the personal responsibility to repent of those sins. It is possible that more Christians would continue to repent of sins throughout their Christian life if they had learned that lesson before becoming a Christian! Is repentance a "missing link"? R.
